The Extradition Claims.

London, 1.—The Times, in an article touching the applications of England to the United States and the French governments, for the extradition of Sheridan and Byrne, says that no candid American or Frenchman would contend that the case of the Phoenix Park murders was covered by the privilege according political offenders, as was asserted in Great Britain in the case of Orsini, who attempted the life of Emperor Napoleon in 1858; but the Times says, if only complicity in the organization of a secret society is alleged against Byrne and Sheridan, their extradition will possibly be refused.

Paris, 1.—The Univers violently attacks government for its presumed intention to deliver Byrne to the English government. He says England refused to deliver Bernard, an avowed accomplice of Orsini in the attack on Napoleon, and she has offered an agreeable refuge to all our so-called convicts and amiable com-munitists. Now, on the simple denunciation of a wretch who sold those who were his tools, the republic delivers up Irishmen who until contrary proof is brought, ought to be held innocent.

Pilotage Fees.

New York, 1.—The Journal of Commerce and other mercantile journals here and in Boston, still agitate pilotage laws.
The Albany assembly committee on commerce have agreed to report a bill reducing Sandy Hook pilotage fees, one third. The Commercial Bulletin, noticing a similar movement in the California legislature, it is stated that with the single exception of Bombay, San Francisco is the most expensive place for shipping in the world, and just here it may be well to ask Congress if they have abandoned the effort to push through the bill introduced in the earlier part of the session to make the imposition of compulsory pilotage applicable in all parts of the country, and if so, why.

Counterfeiter - A Nebraska

Press Law.

Omaha, 1.—James McVey, a blacksmith, has been arrested for counterfeiting and uttering silver.
A large amount of well executed bogus dollars, halves and quarters were found in his possession, together with dies for the same.

It has just been learned that among numerous bills passed by the legislature just before adjourning, was one requiring the press, news associations and telegraph companies doing business in Nebraska to deliver news dispatches to any paper applying for them, and paying for them at the established price.
The law requires such associations also to file articles of incorporation.
Penalties are attached, one of which is $1,000 for every refusal to deliver dispatches to any newspaper willing to pay for the same, whether such paper belongs to the press association or not. The associated press papers here, as well as the best lawyers, claim the law is unconstitutional so far as compelling the delivery of dispatches to papers not members of the association is concerned.

Business Failures.

Steubenville, O., 1.—The Cleveland Furnace Company, operating under lease from the Furnace and Iron Company, failed this morning. Liabilities, $20,000; assets, $30,000 to $40,000.

The Newhall Fire.

Millwaukee, 1.—Papers in the suit of John Gilbert against the owners of the Newhall house are filed; amount of damages asked are $20, 000 for loss of wife.

Fatal Row between Sports.

Chicago, 1.—Between 8 and 9 o'clock to-night, James Elliott pugilist, and Jere Dunn, a well-known sporting man, and man about town, met in the saloon and restaurant of Wm.
Langdon, alias Appleton, alias "Appetite Bill," ex-brunko and confidence man, and began shooting, with result—Elliott killed and Dunn wounded in two places. The trouble dates back to the time when Harry Hill and others came here from New York to meet Jem Mace and Slade, with a view of arranging a match with John L.
Sullivan, whose backer was Jere Dunn. At the same time, Elliott, backed by Parson Daves, was seeking to make a match with the Maori, Harry Hill, when somewhat mellow, was interviewed, and in the course of talk, reflected severely on Elliott's courage. Elliott began hunting for Hill, who immediately took a train for New York.
Elliott in an interview said that Dunn had incited Hill to make these remarks, in order to cause a quarrel between himself and Hill, in order that Dunn might have an excuse to shoot him (Elliott).
Dunn, in a subsequent interview let it be understood that he would shoot Elliott on sight, and as he is a man of unquestionable nerve and determination, no doubt was felt that a shooting match would occur whenever the men met. To-night Elliott and Plaisant, carman, entered "Appetite Bill's" place, to get something to eat. Shortly after Dunn entered. Accounts differ as to subsequent proceedings. One account says Dunn made a threatening demonstration whereupon Elliott rose from the table, took up a chair and went at Dunn with it. Dunn meantime emptying one revolver and then another. Dunn's own statement and that of an eye-witness: He was not aware of Elliott's presence till the latter fired, one shot passing through his left forearm. Dunn then drew his revolver and joined the fusillade, a crowd of twenty-five persons in the place making a hasty exit. Dunn fired five shots; Elliott four. The police arrived and arrested Dunn, put Elliott, in a dying condition, in the patrol wagon and started for the county hospital. Elliott died on the way there, and his body was taken to the morgue. The fatal shot was in the stomach. Dunn is a partner of McKee Rankin in the breeding farm on an island in Detroit River, where they own a number of promising thoroughbred horses.

A Voice from Payson.

PAYSON, Utah Co., U. T., Feb. 28, 1883.

Editors Herald:

We think we are keeping pace with the rest of the settlements in our country, according to the facilities we have, and the drainage we have on us from time to time. Our enterprising men have much improved the appearance of our city the past year in erecting fine buildings. It is evident therefore that they do not intend to be left out in the cold.

Mr. W. H. Hulsh & Sons, merchants, have built a very fine brick store and warehouse, two story, 28 by 32 feet, which will cost $20,000 when completed. It will be stocked with the best of our home-made and imported furniture, which they propose selling at very close margin.

We have one of the largest and best theatre buildings, of brick, going up now in the Territory, excepting Salt Lake City. It is being built by shares, and will cost about $10,000 when completed. The walls are up and roofed.

To-day the people held a mass meeting in the meeting house, in relation to building a district school house. At a previous meeting a committee was appointed to draft a plan and make an estimate of cost which was presented before the people and accepted. The building is to be of brick and two stories, fifty-two by fifty-two feet—four ap-partments. Lower story fourteen and upper story thirteen feet in the clear, making the building thirty feet to the square, and the dome or belfry thirty feet more; total height in front about sixty feet. The estimated cost is about $7,000, for which the people have assessed themselves 2 per cent, and the calculation is to erect and finish the building this season.

G. W. Hancock, merchant, is trying to get away with the balance of the merchants here, as he is selling off his goods at the people's own price. He is selling day and night —singing out—"Going! Going! Going!!!"

Douglas & Sons, we think, have their share of patronage and should begin to come to the front and make a display in the erection of a fine building to improve the appearance of this flourishing city.

Our Co-operative Institution is doing a lively business, and has one of the best flouring mills in the Territory, with latest improved machinery, and turns out flour that cannot be excelled.

Our Tintic being so close by, we expect lively times in business this season, when the Mammoth gets in full operation. SCRIBE.

out continually. Steve T. Harrison,
